Covenant Ethan Warner 1 Dean Crawford
Covenant is a very slow starter and seems to take an age for the author to set the background and introduce the characters/plot (much of which could have waited). Rather than engaging, it felt as if Crawford was lecturing, spouting facts. This book is only worth the time and effort if you intend to read the rest of the Ethan Warner series.

Another adventure featuring Ethan Warner, similar to the Dean Crawford's first book Covenant its a fast paced actioner that i can perfectly see getting turned into a movie. Featuring 140+ year old men, eugenics, some civil war, an evil old codger trying to find immortality an a nice little twist towards the end i admit i should have seen coming but didn't, so obvious when its explained!

Books by Dean Crawford (Author of Covenant)
Coupled with a headstrong police officer, Warner tries to uncover the truth, healing himself along the way. This was a thick chunk of reading but so rewarding. It did leave many questions unanswered but with more books to come I'm not disheartened. Covenant was the thrilling epic I had been waiting for.
