Government and nonprofit accounting are often lumped together as they both use fund accounting principles. However, the way in which they operate, organize financial information, and report on their data differ greatly. Below are the 3 major differences between nonprofit and government accounting processes.

3 Major Differences Between Government & Nonprofit Accounting

Accountants often refer to businesses as for-profit entities and to nonprofit organizations as not-for-profit entities, or NFPs. We will be using the more common term nonprofit instead of not-for-profit. Again, this is a very brief introduction to nonprofit accounting. There are many different types of nonprofits, including governmental nonprofits, which we will not address.
