From New York Times Bestselling author Corinne Michaels comes a heartbreakingly beautiful standalone story about letting love in. I'm losing myself trying to save everyone else... As a doctor, I walk a dangerously delicate balance of being compassionate but not overly invested. The same is true in my personal life--love is a luxury I can't afford. It isn't until Dr. Westin Grant breaks down all my walls and offers me a future, I find myself wondering if I'm brave enough to risk my heart. When who I was and who I've tried to become collide during my clinical trial, the fate of one patient
