Avoiding direct engagement is desirable, so stay under cover and use ricochet shots to destroy them. Two things to keep in mind when facing these tanks are the 'continuous movement strategy' and the 'point-blank zone'. The continuous movement strategy is simple: keep moving in one direction while shooting at these tanks if they can shoot at you.

Techniques: Lead the enemy tank, i.e. aim at where it is going instead of where it is at. This is the most basic technique next to aiming directly at your opponent. It is effective in the most basic of circumstances, i.e. you're trying to destroy a moving tank. Obviously, this doesn't apply to stationary tanks.

Two players can play at multiplayer, player 1 a blue tank and player 2 a red tank. Unlike the other Wii Play games, in Tanks! it is semi-cooperative. Players score a point for each enemy tank they destroy, and whoever destroys the most tanks wins. Friendly fire is a feature, with players able to attack each other should they choose.

Preferably for PS4, Wii U, or Switch. My friend and I had a blast trying to master this game, but it didn't have much to offer (obviously because it's a minigame) and got really tired since you would always have to start from the beginning. Any games that offer a similar type of gameplay? Doesn't necessarily have to be tanks.
